

ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY REQUIREMENTS

Applicants are required to demonstrate they meet the minimum English language proficiency requirements set for their course of interest. The requirements are specific to each course to ensure all students have the level of proficiency in reading, writing, listening and speaking English to progress and complete their studies.

Applicants can meet the English language requirement in a number of ways, specific to their circumstances:

- English speaking background and completed at least five years of primary and secondary school
- Previous studies where the primary language of instruction and assessment was in English
- Satisfactory performance in an accepted English Language Proficiency Test
- Satisfactory completion of an accepted English Preparation Course

1. English Speaking Background

- 1.1 Applicants whose first language is English will be considered as having demonstrated the minimum English language proficiency requirements where they were born in in one of the following English-speaking countries and/or satisfactorily completed at least five years of primary and secondary school education, where the primary language of instruction and assessment was in English, in one of the following English-speaking countries:
- Australia
 - Canada
 - New Zealand
 - Republic of Ireland
 - South Africa
 - United Kingdom
 - United State of America
- 1.2 Applicants are required to demonstrate they were born in or grew up in a predominantly English speaking environment and completed the majority of their schooling in an English medium institution.
- 1.3 The following qualifications may also be accepted as satisfying English language proficiency requirements where the applicant was born in one of the countries listed at 1.1, and successfully completed one of the following qualifications where the primary language of instruction and assessment was in English:
- a) secondary school education (or equivalent)
 - b) an accredited qualification at an AQF Diploma level or higher (or equivalent)
 - c) completion at least one study period of a higher education qualification
 - d) a Special Tertiary Admissions Test (STAT Written English Test)
 - e) current professional registration with an English requirement equivalent or higher than Ikon
- 1.4 Being born in one of the countries listed at 1.1 does not automatically satisfy English Language Proficiency Requirements. Applicants must also evidence at least one of the circumstances referenced at 1.1 or 1.3.
- 1.5 Applicants must provide certified copies of their evidence source at the time of application. Evidence to support 1.3(b) - 1.3(e) must be not more than five years old at the commencement of study date with Ikon.

2. Previous Studies in English

- 2.1 Applicants from a non-English speaking background may be considered as having demonstrated the minimum English language proficiency requirements where they have successfully completed previous studies at an approved institution where the following applies:
 - a) the primary language of instruction and assessment was English
 - b) the institution was located in an approved country (see 2.4)
 - c) the study was at least one year full-time at an AQF 5 diploma level or higher (or equivalent)
 - d) the study was undertaken within two years prior to the commencement of study with Ikon
- 2.2 Successful completion is considered to be at least a pass grade result in no less than 50 per cent of attempted units of study (subjects) in any assessable period ie. a semester, trimester or term etc.
- 2.3 A partially completed higher education qualification at an AQF 7 bachelor's degree or higher (or equivalent) may be considered as evidence of English language proficiency where the criteria listed at 2.1 applies. Partial completion means the successful completion of at least two study periods i.e. semester or trimester.
- 2.4 Ikon recognises international qualifications from the countries published by the University Admissions Centre accessed via Qualifications that usually satisfy ELP. Ikon will verify equivalency of other qualifications against the Australian Qualifications Framework using the Australian Government's Country Education Profiles.
- 2.5 Applicants must provide certified copies of academic transcripts for their previous studies at the time of application. Evidence must be not more than two years old at the commencement of study date with Ikon.

3. English Language Proficiency Test

- 3.1 Applicants from a non-English speaking background, who have not completed previous study where the instructional and assessment language was English, may demonstrate they meet the minimum English language proficiency requirements by submitting test scores from an accepted English Language Proficiency Test equivalent (or higher) to the IELTS test scores specific to their course of interest.
- 3.2 Ikon recognises a number of English Language Proficiency and accepts scores from the following tests:
 - International English Language Testing System (IELTS Academic)
 - Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL iBT Computer Delivered Test)
 - Pearson Test of English Academic (PTE Academic)
 - Cambridge Assessment English (C1 Advanced)
- 3.1 Ikon sets the minimum English Language Proficiency Test Scores appropriate to the demands of each course and publishes this information as a minimum IELTS (or equivalent) score. The minimum test score for any course is IELTS Overall Score of 6.0 (or equivalent accepted test scores) however some courses may have a higher overall score or minimum band scores for each component of the test ie. reading, listening, speaking and writing.
- 3.2 A summary of the minimum IELTS Overall Scores (or equivalent) for each undergraduate course is listed in Table 1 below. For more information on the minimum IELTS Band Scores see Schedule A.
